

I hope this message finds you well. On behalf of the Montrose Regional Health Foundation, I am thrilled to announce that our signature event, Boot Stomp Montrose will be returning this year after taking a brief sabbatical last year.

Boot Stomp Montrose has always been a cornerstone of our mission to support the San Juan Cancer Center, at Montrose Regional Health and its patients. We are excited to bring it back, bigger and better than ever. This year's event will take place on June 6th, 2025, at Storm King Mountain Ranch. We are eagerly planning an unforgettable experience, building on the success of previous years and introducing new elements to engage and inspire our community.
